Society, Environment & IndSearch:

IndSearch has always been sensitive towards social and environmental issues. The concept of IndSearch Biodiversity Campus is just a natural extension of this thought. Providing a holistic education amidst the environs of nature, a key concept behind having such a campus is to take education beyond the confines of classroom. Some of the other activities undertaken by IndSearch like Community Service, The Entrepreneurship Cell (E-Cell), Women Entrepreneurship Development Programme (WEDP), Blood Donation Camp, Lab to Land & A Life Long Association (IndEx, IndSearch Alumni Network), are a testimony of the institutes commitment towards the society & holistic grooming of the students.
